Expressions of Interest

Expressions of Interest are being sort by locals to become QPR Facilitators in the Gascoyne region. QPR stands for Question, Persuade, Refer. It is an evidence-based suicide prevention training that aims to help people recognise signs that someone may be thinking of or in the initial phase of a suicidal plan, and seek an emergency response on their behalf. The training can be completed online, but can also be delivered Face-to-Face in a 60-90 minute session. You can find out more at the QPR Institute Australian website: <https://qprinstituteaustralia.com.au/>

Over the past year, WA Country Health Service Mental Health & Community Alcohol & Drug Services (CADS) have been rolling out QPR face-to-face training throughout Geraldton and the northwest Gascoyne region and have had a good response with businesses and workplaces who find the short format fits in easily with team meetings and busy schedules.

WA Country Health Service Mental Health & CADS are seeking 6 people to become QPR face-to-face facilitators for the Gascoyne region. These people would be required to:

- Complete an online (admittedly, quite dry) instructor training within 3 months of being selected.
- Promote QPR in your town / region.
- Work with another QPR facilitator to conduct, at least, 4

QPR trainings per year. (Note: There are 2 QPR facilitators for each training)

- Send relevant paperwork (sign-up sheets, evaluation forms) to WACHS for analysis.

While QPR Facilitators are able to charge for the course, WA Country Health Service Mental Health & CADS feel that it is in the interest of the community that this is offered for free to ensure accessibility for all. As such, it would be beneficial if the facilitator has permission and support from their workplace to complete their facilitation training and run the QPR courses.

In return, WA Country Health Service Mental Health & Community Alcohol & Drug Services (CADS) will:

- Reimburse selected individuals for the online instructor training, valued at $644. (Please note: You will need to provide a Tax Invoice for reimbursement, as well as a Statement by Supplier if you do not have an ABN).
- Assist with promoting QPR in the Gascoyne region
- Provide all materials for QPR training, including booklets and localised powerpoint presentations.
- Liaise with QPR Facilitators on a regular basis to analyse evaluations and provide feedback, and assist with any problems that may arise.

If you are interested in becoming a QPR facilitator, or want further information, please get in touch with Liz Lockyer or Isabel Ross as per the details below.

Grants

The Arts $15k plus grant program offers between $15,000 and $60,000 funding for artists, creative industry professionals and organisations to deliver a one-off project or a program of activity.

The program supports the development and growth of a vibrant sector that promotes the participation and active engagement of Western Australian communities in high quality arts and cultural experiences.

Individuals, groups and organisations are welcome to apply however:

- Individuals must have Australian citizenship or permanent resident status.
- Groups including unincorporated bodies, partnerships and individuals informally collaborating on an activity must be based in Australia.
- Organisations must either be registered under law (e.g. incorporated association, company limited by guarantee) or created by law (e.g. university, school or government statutory authority).

- WA educational institutions (kindergartens, primary and secondary schools, colleges and universities) cannot apply for curriculum-based arts activity. If you are in any doubt, contact us to discuss your activity.
- If you are applying on behalf of Aboriginal people you must provide evidence of significant Aboriginal involvement in the conception, development of and participation in the activity.
- Although WA residency is not a requirement to apply for a grant, if you are applying from outside WA you will need to show the benefits to WA artists, creatives, arts or cultural workers in your application.

Webinar: Reporting Tools: How to Evaluate Them – 4th February at the CRC, 8am – 9am.

Spreadsheets are the most commonly used reporting tools in the world today. Yet almost 90% of them contain errors. Some may be minor but many are serious and can lead to financial losses. While improving spreadsheet procedures is one remedy, many Not-for-Profits are looking to reporting and dashboard tools that eliminate, or at least minimize, the risks of spreadsheets.

This webinar will guide you in the process of evaluating your options. It won't tell you what the solution is but it will help you gather the information and ask the right questions to get the solution that will work best for you.

Not available on this date and time? Register anyway at the CRC! All webinar registrants will receive a full recording and the slides after the webinar has been presented.

SHIRE PRESIDENT'S REPORT - JANUARY 2020

AUSTRALIA DAY

More than 100 people attended the Australia Day event held in the Shire Hall on 26 January and celebrated all that's great about Australia and being an Australian.

Australia Day is for all of us, regardless of where our stories began, to come together to acknowledge our past, celebrate the present and look to our future. Being Australian means we can come from many different cultures and backgrounds but live in harmony and appreciate our good fortune to be Australians and enjoy the freedoms we have.

A big thank you to the CRC and Shire staff, volunteer 'chefs' and Shark Bay Entertainers for ensuring the celebrations were a great success!

CITIZENSHIP AWARDS PRESENTATION

The Shire of Shark Bay's citizenship awards demonstrate our appreciation for all those volunteers who contribute to the Australian community by donating their time and energy to support others. I congratulate and thank ALL those who were nominated for the awards and acknowledge your contributions to the local community. The award in each category was presented to; Kyle Dobney (Youth), Shark Bay Speedway Club (Group or Event), Maureen Hoult (Senior) and Brian Child (Citizen 25+ Yrs).

SILVER CHAIN AND MEDICAL SERVICES

Being aware there have recently been concerns with the continuity of local medical services, the CEO and I recently organised a meeting with Silver Chain directors to discuss with them the current situation regarding employment of a replacement nurse practitioner and other issues. I can reassure you we are working with Silver Chain to ensure that the service being provided is not diminished.

An experienced health service professional has been engaged by Silver Chain to review operations at the Shark Bay clinic (and 12 additional remote posts) and will shortly visit Shark Bay and assess the services here. It is anticipated she will meet with Council and seek input from community members whilst in the Bay.

Whilst Silver Chain is meeting their State Government contractual obligations with the current provision of medical services, the Council will continue its endeavours on your behalf to seek an expanded and improved service for Shark Bay.

HYDROGEN POWER IN DENHAM

I'm sure most of you would have seen the recent media release regarding Denham being selected to trial the first hydrogen plant powered by solar energy in WA which, if successful, could become the model blueprint for hydrogen power in other regional towns and provide the opportunity to expand the plant to supply full power requirements for the town in the future.

The trial hydrogen plan will produce enough energy to power 100 homes and Denham is the first regional town where the capability of hydrogen as a future renewable energy source is being tested. The project is being run by Horizon Power, which has sought EOs from companies to build the 60-kilowatt plant. Council has agreed to lease a 20 ha area of land adjacent to the current wind turbine facility.

Excess energy from the solar panels will be fed into the grid, adding to the wind power from the turbines and solar energy from homes. Our diesel generator would then be replaced with renewable energy as part of Horizon Power's goal of no new diesel power by 2025. This trial has attracted interest from across Australia and will be widely watched.

HAVE YOUR SAY!

A reminder that the Shire's Strategic Community Plan 2018-2028 is currently being reviewed, and we want to hear what your priorities are! Just complete a short survey before 4pm on 10th February either online via the Shire's website or by submitting the printed survey to the Shire office. A community workshop is also being held on 10th at the Rec Centre between 5.30-7.30pm. So, come along and be heard!

The draft final report of the Denham townsite Coastal Hazard Plan is now available on the Shire website for your review. Fill in and submit the feedback form asap, as the public consultation period closes on 5th February.

Quiet January

Shedders have been quiet during January – unusually so but that won't last for long. While shedders have been quiet, lots has been happening around us.

In an attempt to increase awareness of our existence amongst the people of Denham and surrounds, we have commenced a Facebook page - https://www.facebook.com/Shark-Bay-Community-Mens-Shed-102137417993031/?modal=admin_todo_tour Through this we hope to make people more aware of our existence.

Council has been very active on our behalf in recent times. Our application for a Lotterywest grant has been revised by Council and the committee to take into account the new location offered by Council in Hughes Street. This location involves significantly lower connection costs to service such as power and it is hoped that a lower grant application will be favourably looked upon by Lotterywest. We have also looked at the possibility of sharing any potential shed with other community groups in Denham. To date one group – the War on Waste team – has expressed interest in participating in the venture. It is hoped the application will be submitted for the next round of funding.

Meanwhile it will be business as usual on a Monday morning at 10am in our shed on the corner of Poland Road and Capewell Drive. If you are interested in checking out what we have to offer in the way of tools to be borrowed by members or small tasks we might be able to assist you with around the home, please drop in for a chat.

The Shark Bay Entertainers

The Shark Bay Entertainers were once again very proud to lead the singing (as they did last year) the Australian National Anthem, along with a favourite for many Australians... "I am, you are, we are Australian!"

Our happy group of singers has grown in the last year and we look forward to welcoming more new members!

So, if you like singing, don't be shy and join us for our next engagement at ANZAC Day. Be ready for some fun, interesting and challenging singing, the New Zealand National Anthem, in Maori and English!

Along with the Australian Anthem of course and a beautiful classic... "Amazing Grace".

Volunteer Marine Rescue

PO Box 35, Knight Tce Denham 6537 | vmrsharkbay@westnet.com.au

No rescues again this month which is always a welcome sight. A few of our newer members have been going through crews and skippers.

The tender documents have been sent out to the three boat builders selected by DFES for the replacement of our aging Rescue 3. The sub-committee responsible have opted for a 7.5 metre rigid hull inflatable design, powered by twin 200 hp outboards. It will be equipped with the latest electronic navigation and communication equipment as well as search aids including FLIR night vision capability.

It will be up to the group to sell Rescue 3 on the open market and the proceeds of the sale will be transferred to DFES to go toward the cost of the replacement vessel.

Congratulations to Cathy Oakley, the winner of our raffle held at the Shark Bay Hotel a couple of Friday nights ago. She has won a barge transfer for a vehicle and two people, plus three nights camping at Salty's campground on Dirk Hartog Island courtesy of Kieran and Tory Wardle. Thanks to "The Oldie" for the opportunity to raise some funds for our group.

New volunteers are always welcome at your local Marine Rescue group, call 9948 1376 to ask for an application form and help to make a difference in your community and people's lives.

Shark Bay Speedway Club

Another busy month for the Speedway Club with many happenings around the club and in the community. Our club post & panel project is still in full swing, with the final panels being installed for our front straight we are only small steps away to kicking off our 2020 season.

On Wednesday 8th January, a General Meeting was held to help confirm up our racing calendar for this year. Other than our already confirmed dates in April and July the committee was able to agree upon two more dates for our 2020 season. In June we will be holding a Club Meeting on Saturday 13th which will include a perpetual trophy day for all Street Stock and Production drivers.

Following on from our annual Far Western in July we will be holding another Club Meeting on Saturday 8th August, which we are hoping to introduce an exciting 20/20 format for our Modified perpetual trophy day. This will see two drivers teaming up to complete 20 laps each to determine the feature winners. This meeting will also be followed by our yearly windup/presentation night where our Club Champions of the Year will be announced & celebrated.

As a club, we would also like to express how very humbled and grateful we were to receive the 2020 Australia Day Active Group Award at the Australia Day Citizen Awards.

We couldn't express how truly thankful we are to our local community enough for nominating us for this award.

In ending, if anyone of the community would like to be a member for our 2020 season our Membership Forms are now available by contacting us either through our Facebook page or via emailing sharkbayspeedwayclub@outlook.com

Welcome back to Kindy Gym for 2020. Kindy Gym is a program held at the Rec Centre for children aged from 0 to 5 years of age and their parents/caregiver. Kindy Gym kids learn to be stronger in body (motor skills, strength and coordination), mind (creativity, cognitive development and problem solving) and spirit (social development and confidence).

One of the most important roles we can play as parents/carers is to assist and encourage this curiosity and help experience translate into rich learning adventures. Carers/parents are encouraged to join in with their child at Kindy Gym sessions to help create a fun, safe and structured environment for the children.

Seth's fishing report

Hi guys i know i said this was my last article but I've done so much fishing this month so bring on the encore.

My friend Nate Eastough came back up to Shark Bay for about a month's holiday and stayed with us. Daily we were either fishing, boating, swimming or spearfishing, with the odd down day watching the Xbox needed. You would find us either at the service jetty, boat ramp, snorkelling along the foreshore, at swimming lessons or out fishing at the old sunken barge, ship wreck out the front of Denham Seaside or in the moorings.

We went crabbing a few times out at Monkey Mia and we always got a hand full of sized ones, which were delicious and it made sure we were not over doing it and crabbing for our future. While we were there, we went fishing at the old sunken Pearl farm on Australia Day and we caught a blacky, mulloway, the world's largest ranking cod (20cm good job Nate) and I caught the beauty, a 73cm pink snapper. It blew everyone away as they were enjoying themselves in the sunshine and water back at the boat ramp!

After we went fishing, we went over to the new Pearl farm pontoon with the Morgan's and went ski biscuiting with all the kids. It was heaps of fun before I forgot flung off the biscuit because of my mate Josh Emery.

I took Mum out on the boat one hot day as its normally just me and the boys. She stayed on the boat and was decky while Nate and I went diving. She said a shark swam up near the boat and she was amazed with all the dots all over it, so we presume it was a leopard shark. He wasn't at all interested in us diving. Nate also caught a 43cm bluebone that day and he caught it off squid. I have converted him now to hand lines to catch blue bone which is a lot more fun than a rod.

One night we wanted to go shark and ray fishing down at Netta's beach. We caught and released one but got distracted by the yellow ghost crabs coming up onto the beach. So we started catching them to use for bait the next day. The following morning Nate and I went down to the jetty to use our bait and Nate, being the bluebone king, caught yet another 43cm bluebone. Not long later we went diving at Wilson Island while mum went fishing off the beach. There were fish everywhere as the waters are a lot warmer so the fish are coming in closer.

Oh lastly just a friendly tip (lesson learnt the hard way by us boys) if you get the crab pot rope stuck around the propeller and can't get it off, don't jump in the water and swim to shore or the nearest boat. Chuck out the anchor and wait it out or call for help (mum always makes me take a phone). Someone will come looking for you eventually, especially if you can't find the phone. I can see why VMR cadets is a great idea now, regardless of how much fishing or boating anyone does.

See you on the March long weekend

Dirk Hartog Island Colouring in Competition

Last December in the lead up to the end of a busy school year in December, students from Shark Bay Primary School were given the enviable task of bringing to life an amazing Dirk Hartog Island Christmas themed colour-in cartoon, in whatever creative way they desired. The black and white cartoon of a happy Aussie Santa, travelling in his sleigh driven by a troupe of hare-wallabies was animated by students in all manner of colour and with oodles of creativity.

Prizes were on offer for the most creative and artistic interpretations, making the job of picking a winner very difficult indeed. So much so that DBCA staff called on the assistance of a very helpful special guest judge to pick the two eventual winners, Wilma the Woma Python.

Wilma, who is no stranger to the students of Shark Bay School, slithered and slid across all the entries that were laid out before her, flicking her forked tongue as she went, Wilma eventually decided upon the two well deserved winners. Wynter, who went with a kaleidoscopic rainbow theme and Farran, who added his own flair and creativity to the piece with the addition of a sunny landscape complete with trees and clouds. For their amazing efforts, both students received a copy of the photobook "Return to 1616 – Dirk Hartog Island National Park Ecological Restoration Project".

Fantastic effort and congratulations to all the students who entered! DBCA staff are looking forward to working with staff and students from Shark Bay School in 2020.

Watch out for Womas!

Wilma would also like to say a huge THANKYOU to everyone for taking lots of care of her family. They love the warmer weather and are out and about on the roads.

Unlike other pythons they have a narrow head making them look more like venomous snakes. Wilma says rest assured they're harmless and only eat other reptiles such as lizards and snakes. They love a good photo if you don't get too close. Any photos and sighting locations are welcomed by her friends at the DBCA Shark Bay District Office.

With successful feral animal control woma pythons have been staging a "come back" on Peron Peninsula so be on the lookout. If you see something shiny on the road – slow down it might be one of Wilmas relatives.

New staff member

Shark Bay District staff would like to welcome Paul Robb to the position of National Park Ranger who will be working across several national parks in the district.

Paul is no stranger to remote conditions having spent the last three years working and living at Thundelarra – part of the Karara Rangeland Park, situated some 300km east of Geraldton. A bit of a trail blazer, Paul was the first Ranger to be appointed to this remote rangeland park.

Prior to Thundelarra, Paul worked as a Ranger south of Jurien Bay – along the coastal strip that includes Nambung National Park and Wedge Island settlement. Paul also brings a wealth of conservation experience, including feral animal and declared weed control.

Paul isn't entirely a newcomer to the local area as he was one of the shooting team who helped eradicate goats from Dirk Hartog Island National Park.

Paul is a committed environmental practitioner and educator and is enjoying the opportunity to be part of the local community in Shark Bay.

Verbesina - Wolf in Sheep's Clothing

You may have noticed a new plant around the Denham area at the moment. Although Golden Crownbeard (Verbesina encelioides) bears a superficial resemblance to the beautiful sunflower and has a delightful name, don't be fooled by this "wolf in sheep's clothing". It's definitely not a local and although it's trying to "sneak in under the radar", this interloper isn't welcome in our spectacular natural environment.

Drought tolerant, Verbesina produces lots of seed which helps it to form thickets that rapidly "blanket" entire areas. It also releases a chemical into the soil which suppresses other vegetation helping it to push out native plants and animals as it spreads.

Whilst other areas have succumbed to this new and deadly weed, Denham is well placed to "shut the barn door" and keep Verbesina out. If allowed to get a foothold, enormous damage could be done to the Shark Bay World Heritage Area's plants and animals and the Dirk Hartog Island National Park Return to 1616 Ecological Restoration Project.

What to do?

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure! Hand removal works well early on and it's so much easier to remove a couple of plants than to tackle hectares of 'wall to wall' Verbesina. So get in early! If you see some growing, removal is simple!

- Put a bag over it to prevent seed drop
- Pull it up by the roots so it can't resprout,
- bin it

But be careful! This plant is toxic and sap can be irritating so use gloves! If you catch it before seed set – check out appropriate herbicide use at www.florabase.dpaw.wa.gov.au/browse/profile/15725

Prevent the spread of Verbesina. Before heading out bush, or over to Dirk Hartog Island National Park, check your 4WD and camping gear to ensure you have no weed seeds looking for a free ride.

Turtle Tagging

You've probably all heard the joke - How do you catch a unique animal?.....you neek up on it!

Well that's exactly what volunteers have been doing at Turtle Bay on Dirk Hartog Island National Park recently. Getting up close and personal with a truly unique marine turtle is a fabulous opportunity for volunteers who come from near and far to join in WA's longest running project studying the loggerhead turtle (Caretta caretta).

Loggerhead turtles are the second largest marine turtle in the world and the vast majority of WA's loggerheads nest right here in Shark Bay. Within this region, Dirk Hartog Island has WA's highest density and population of nesting turtles and is thankfully free of feral animals with very little human disturbance which makes it a critically important site to their survival.

Between 1000 – 1200 turtles nest on Dirk Hartog island in breeding season each year between November and April. Each night, female turtles perform the herculean task of heaving their heavy bodies up the beach to dig a hole and lay between 50 and 100 eggs. Each day volunteers count the drag marks to help estimate population numbers. The volunteer's nightshift involves walking along the beaches and rocky shores of Dirk Hartog Island to locate the turtles, tag and record information on them. Tagging allows them to be identified when they return to the beach and the information recorded is used to gain a better understanding of turtle ecology.

How can we help?

Loggerhead turtles are listed as endangered in Australia and are vulnerable the world over as a result of many threats including loss of nesting areas, nest predation, pollution, disorientation from coastal lighting and being caught by long lines and trawling nets. But there are things we can all do to help.

Plastic

Along with crustaceans and molluscs, turtles eat jellyfish. Unfortunately, floating plastic in the ocean can look a lot like jellyfish and when eaten by turtles, it can have dire consequences. Plastic ingestion is a major contributor to turtle deaths but there are things we can do to help. So hang on to your plastic or try to reduce or eliminate your plastic use entirely, especially when heading out on a boating trip.

Pets

Pets aren't permitted in national parks for good reason. Dogs can interfere with hatchlings and disturb females laying eggs so leave the pets behind when heading out.

Light pollution

Light from vehicles and camping or even torchlight and flash photography can cause female turtles to abandon the nest when laying eggs and interfere with hatchlings ability to navigate.

Like to be involved?

Volunteer work is hard but rewarding and volunteer positions are limited. If you have a high level of fitness and would like to "put your hat in the ring" to help out in future years, you can request to be included on the volunteer register.

Dementia Care Navigator

A better way to connect with services and supports

Finding information about government-funded aged care services can be complex. Dementia Australia has a new way to identify and access dementia services.

The Dementia Care Navigator is a service that aims to make it simpler for Australians to learn about government-supported aged care services and how to access them.

The trial involves testing different ways to share aged care service information.

Due to the changing nature of dementia, it is likely support needs of the person with dementia, their families and carers, will differ at various stages of the disease. We understand what people go through after receiving a diagnosis of dementia and that everyone's experience is unique.

This program will support you to connect with and access services in your area.

Dementia Australia is seeking participants who reside in Dubbo NSW, Perth WA and surrounding regions.

Participation in the trial is free.

You will be asked to evaluate the trial and your experiences will allow us to improve the support we provide to people wanting to access aged care services.

The Aged Care Navigators Trial is delivered by Dementia Australia as part of a consortium led by COTA Australia and funded by the Australian Government. For more information go to AgedCareNavigators.org.au

SES is up and running again and boy did we start with a bang!

On Monday 20th January our DO Tim Dalwood headed up from head quarters in Geraldton to assist in running a training night with our crew. The multi-faceted scenario started at our base, with our faithful member Terry appointed team leader for the exercise.

We received our instructions, packed the troopy and off the convoy went headed to an unknown location. Once we arrived, we were all surprised to find ourselves at Peron Homestead, to simulate a land search and 4WD rescue.

Once these exercises were completed, we all headed to the hot tubs for a well-earned meal & debriefing.

Our sincerest gratitude goes to Tim, for all his wisdom and pointers along the way, as well as Joe for setting up this great opportunity for all of the crew. At the end of the night we all went away with some gained knowledge along with happy faces and full bellies!

We look forward to the next training night to test our skills further as individuals and as a team.

Leap Year

We all know our calendar has 365 days on it, and that makes up a year. But it actually takes the earth 365.25 days to completely orbit the sun. That extra quarter day, added up four times, means that a day needs to be added to the calendar every four years. That extra day is February 29th in our calendar. The last one was 2016, & this year 2020 is one. It makes life difficult for anyone born on 29th February in a Leap Year.

It gets a bit more complicated, because the earth's orbit is not quite 365.25 days. So that extra day every four years overcompensates for the error. Over a period of 400 years, the total errors amount to three extra days.

Did you know that every 400 hundred years the calendar leaves out the leap day on each of the next three century years. The last time it occurred was the year 1600. In the years 1700, 1800, 1900 there was no 29th February. Then 2000 was a leap year, so the years 2100, 2200, 2300 will not be leap years.

Usually any date on the calendar advances one day of the week from one year to the next. The name "leap year" comes from the fact that in a leap year, the day of the week will leap two days forward from March, because of the extra day on February 29th. As a consequence, Christmas Day 2019 was on Wednesday; this year it will be on Friday.

So what caused this "missing" day and our calendar to be out of sync? The answer is found in the Bible!

Joshua, the successor to Moses, was leading Israel in battle against the nation's enemies at a city named Gibeon. Joshua had the upper hand and wanted to finish off the enemy. He prayed to God, "Let the sun stand still over Gibeon, and the moon over the valley of Aijalon". So the sun stood still and the moon stayed in place until Israel had defeated its enemies. The Bible recorded, "There has never been a day like this before or since. The sun stayed in the middle of the sky, and did not set for about a whole day." This means that the earth stood still, since the sun and moon didn't move in the sky, for almost a full day, but not a full 24 hours. This has been taken to account for most of the missing 24 hours in the earth's orbit.

Added to this is the record of a King Hezekiah, who was faithful to God but was dying from an illness. Isaiah a prophet, assured the king that God would heal him. Hezekiah asked for a sign, which was not uncommon in his day. The prophet stated that God would make the shadow on the sun dial either move forward 10 degrees or back 10 degrees, according to the king's choice. The king asked the Lord to make the sun move backwards ten degrees, which he did & Hezekiah received a further 15 years of life. Ten degrees on a sun dial equals 40 minutes of time, the portion of time that fills the gap in the "missing" day in our Earth's orbit. Joshua's "about a whole day", reckoned as 23 hours and 20 minutes, plus Hezekiah's 40 minutes equals 24 hours.

Only the creator of our planet, God, could alter its orbit, and in his care for the children of earth, he chose to do so! Leap Year is a testimony that God is in control, and one day he will cause time to be no more. So let's not waste this 'extra' day we have; make the most of your leap day, make the most of every day!

CRITICAL REMINDER

To ALL RESIDENTS and VISITORS
For any life threatening emergencies or serious crime/incidents the number to call is 000

In Shark Bay many people have a tendency to call the local agency direct or private phone numbers of volunteers when requiring urgent assistance. Please be aware, this does not make response faster. In fact it delays the response time of emergency services as a response team can not be dispatched until the central command centre has directed them to do so. So call 000, response will be faster. When calling 000, it is also important to remember that the operator will ask you the following questions, which will aid them in assisting you as fast and efficiently as possible.

Service required: Police/Ambulance/Fire & Rescue
